

TULSA REGIONAL CHAMBER

MEMBERSHIP ENGAGEMENT

OPPORTUNITIES TO MAXIMIZE
YOUR MEMBERSHIP INVESTMENT

GET ENGAGED.

Membership in the Tulsa Regional Chamber represents an investment in your business and your community. Whether your motivation is to build relationships, access resources, advocate for the region or invest in northeast Oklahoma's economic prosperity, membership provides a means to achieve your business goals. There are many opportunities to get involved and plug in to some of the largest issues affecting the region's business climate and quality of life.

MEMBERSHIP & RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT

TULSA SMALL BUSINESS CONNECTION

The Chamber's Tulsa Small Business Connection is northeast Oklahoma's premier network of small businesses. Join the Connection at events throughout the year for programing tailored specifically for small business owners, operators and employees.

For more information, visit tulsasbc.com.

TULSA SMALL BUSINESS CONNECTION COMMITTEES

As the backbone of the Connection, these leadership committees work together to create solutions for everyday small business needs. Committee participation is a great way to meet small business owners and build relationships with like-minded peers.

CEO ROUNDTABLES

Join a group of eight noncompetitive small business owners who meet monthly to share best practices and exchange ideas in a confidential setting. As part of the highest-rated program of the Tulsa Small Business Connection, participants are carefully placed in groups to accommodate group chemistry. Participation is limited to small business owners or principals who have been in business for at least a year.

MEMBER LEAP

These quarterly events bring together active members interested in being more involved and engaged with Chamber initiatives, programs and events. Each Member LEAP includes a panel of various Chamber staff who explain the benefits and resources their division offers members.

HOSPITALITY CLUB

If you enjoy building relationships, consider assisting at events, grand openings, ribbon cuttings and ground-breakings as a Hospitality Club volunteer. This is a great opportunity to meet and connect with members and celebrate new and growing businesses in the Tulsa region. Volunteers are recognized based on attendance. New volunteers are added throughout the year.

RESOURCE CAMPAIGN

This annual campaign provides 25 percent of the Chamber's operating budget. Approximately 60 volunteers generate revenue during the 10-week campaign (March-May) by selling sponsorships for programs, events and publications, as well as new memberships to companies with whom they have a relationship. The campaign provides a great opportunity to meet business leaders throughout the region, earn commissions and a coveted trip for top producers.

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

MANUFACTURERS' COUNCIL

The Manufacturers' Council provides members with peer-to-peer networking and discussions and acts as a conduit to deliver industry-specific information on issues, concerns and interests while bolstering the public perception of manufacturing. Open to manufacturing members; must be the owner, president, CEO or company designee to participate.

HR FORUMS

The ever-changing world of managing human capital creates the need to stay up-to-date and engaged in timely topics. Held twice annually, HR Forums create an opportunity for peer-to-peer networking and learning. Trending topics will be selected to provide open dialogue, resources and best-practice models to HR professionals, hiring managers and recruiters.

REGIONAL TOURISM

TULSA SPORTS COMMISSION

Volunteer for roles at local sporting events, including hospitality room setup, hosting and VIP ambassadors. The commission, which is housed at the Chamber, also operates the Tulsa Federal Credit Union Tulsa Run. This signature community event offers plenty of opportunities for involvement, including the finish line fest, elite runner ambassadors, water stop management, community outreach, and corporate or youth team recruitment.

TULSA CREATIVITY DATABASE

This user-friendly online resource highlights the region's creative industries, filmmakers, musicians, artists and support services. Any business that offers resources to the Tulsa creative community can register to be listed in the database. It also contains a thorough listing of film locations across northeast Oklahoma. Businesses can register their office or facilities and earn a small fee if their location is selected by a production.

GOVERNMENT AFFAIRS

ONEVOICE LEGISLATIVE TASK FORCES

Play a part in shaping state and federal legislation by participating in a OneVoice task force. These task forces are the starting point for the OneVoice Regional Legislative Agenda, which is developed through the collaboration of hundreds of individuals and endorsed by more than 75 regional organizations. The agenda presents a unified coalition for pro-business policy at the state and federal levels. Task forces participate in advocacy events and legislative outreach year-round.

ENERGY COUNCIL

This opportunity provides members with direct input into the Chamber's advocacy, economic development and workforce efforts. Open to upstream, midstream and downstream energy business members; must be the owner, president, CEO or company designee to participate.

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

INTERCITY VISIT TASK FORCE

Help shape one of the region's most impactful events as part of the Intercity Visit task force. Each year, the Chamber leads a group of 100 business executives, elected officials, regional partners, educational administrators and young professionals on a trip to a peer city to hear best practices in economic development, education and workforce, community development and tourism. Be part of the group that plans this highly popular trip.

For more information, visit tulsachamber.com/intercityvisit.

TYPROS

This young professionals network is a great way to ensure your young employees are engaged in the community and aware of all Tulsa has to offer. As one of the largest and most active young professionals organizations in the country, TYPROS connects people, develops leaders and builds community through numerous events, projects and initiatives each year.

MOSAIC

Mosaic is the Chamber's coalition of companies and nonprofit partners that celebrate diversity, champion equity and cultivate inclusion within the region's business community. The coalition's efforts help improve perceptions of the community, grow the Tulsa-area economy, and better attract and retain talent to the region. Chamber members can engage with Mosaic through monthly meetings, networking events, CEO programming and more.
